Random House, 2011. Book Condition: New. Brand New, Unread Copy in Perfect Condition. A+ Customer Service! Summary: Praise for Spousonomics Spousonomics is one of the most delightful, clever, and helpful books about marriage I've ever seen.-Elizabeth Gilbert, author of Eat, Pray, Love and Committed " Spousonomics lets you peer into other people's relationships, with valuable lessons for your own. A fun and breezy read for anyone who wants to be both smarter about economics and wiser about love." Steven Landsburg, author of The Armchair Economist and More Sex is Safer Sex " Spousonomics offers couples real life, common sense solutions for some of the knottiest conflicts regularly experienced in marriage. Written with great wit and understanding, it is both very helpful and a pleasure to read. I recommend it highly." John. W. Jacobs, M.D., author of All You Need Is Love And Other Lies About Marriage . Practical, compelling, and hilarious, Spousonomics highlights economics-based strategies for couples coping with the inevitable annoyances of a relationship. How can you coax him to do chores without nagging? Or change her mind about important decisions, quit yelling at the kids, or step away from the computer? The minute I finished this book, I started to experiment on my husband.-Gretchen Rubin, author of The Happiness Project " Spousonomics delivers: Two accomplished journalists master a fascinating body of research I'd been hoping to learn more about, then weave it into a narrative that's a pure pleasure to read. Bravo." Robert H. Frank, Professor of Economics at Cornell University, and author of The Economic Naturalist and The Winner-Take-All Society "Spousonomics is a brilliant and innovative book. And if you're a rational consumer, you really have to buy it: A few bucks to improve your marriage? That's just good decision making." A.J. Jacobs, bestselling author of The...
