Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Wrong Side of Eighteen: A Comedy in One Act Scene: Dining room of Mrs. Sherman s midwestern farmhouse, along toward twilight of an autumn day. The room has two doors: one at left, leading to the kitchen and the back door, and the other at right leading to the living room and the upstairs. A curtained window, with neat, inexpensive white draperies, is up center. The room is plainly furnished, neat, and orderly. In the center is a medium-sized, rather old-fashioned dining table, with a cloth on it, partly set for the evening meal. Around the table are placed three straight-backed chairs. A similar chair is near the door at left, a little down stage from it, and two more chairs of the same kind are up right and left respectively. Up extreme left, against the back wall, stands a cupboard or old-fashioned sideboard, on which are arranged a few dishes. Up extreme right, near the right wall, is a mantelshelf, on which is a clock facing left in such a manner that its...
