Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The Present State of Mediaeval Studies in Great Britain Even a knowledge of mediaeval archaeology is not now impossible of attainment, and Liverpool has here led the way by instituting a professorship of that subject in 1908. More important by far than the mere institution of more lectures is the fact that of recent years several organized seminars of mediaeval history are now in operation in which teachers of mediaeval history show to their pupils their own methods of work, and guide them in the pursuit of their first efforts in original investigation. The first steps in this direction were taken by Mr. Hubert Hall in the University of London. Since then Professor Vinogradoff has conducted a seminar of the best continental type in mediaeval economic and legal history at Oxford. In Edinburgh, Professor Hume Brown directs something like a seminar in what is rather quaintly called ancient Scottish history and palaeography . In Manchester, Professor Tait and myself have for some years held a seminar on English history in the fourteenth century, and Professor Unwin has very powerfully helped us on the economic side of mediaeval history. Some published results of work, done under seminar conditions at London, Oxford, and Manchester, are already before the world, and before very long I hope that many more will appear. We must not only look to the Universities for training in mediaeval technique. We have been witnessing for many years the gradual process by which under the auspices of the present Deputy-Keeper, Sir Henry Maxwell Lyte, the spirit of the Public Record Office is being changed. What was once an unorganized agglomeration of individual government officials, discharging...
