That s why she will do whatever it takes to date a popular guy at Westbrook High, even if it means stepping on the toes of Westbrook s most popular cheerleader, Symphony Perkins. But how is that even possible when Amber has low self-esteem and a pimply complexion? Symphony Perkins aka aspiring fashion designer, is finding it hard to keep her rep intact with all of Amber s shenanigans. Threatening to be kicked off the cheerleading squad as captain if she doesn t get her math grades up, she decides to put the frenemy thing to good use. All the while dealing with kept secrets from those she s closest to. Roman Davis, Westbrook s MVP football player, is not having a good school year. If it isn t one thing it s another. He has his own secrets he s keeping and he ll find out secrets that were kept from him. Even though Roman betrayed his best friend, Quincy, he tries everything in his power to right that wrong. Hunter Santos is back after being gone for a year. Something has severed her and her father s relationship and Hunter tries her hardest to win back his affection, but does he even deserve a second chance? Enemies turn into friends and friends turn into enemies in this first Installment of the Westbrook High Series.
