The majority of inmates are either convicted of drug dealing or drug-related crimes. I believe that better drug treatment at Rivers could possibly re-duce the high recidivism rate. In my opinion, anger management, domestic violence, and parenting classes would also be of great im-portance to the inmate population. I know Rivers, or any prison, for that matter, is not a college, but better programs could possibly make a big difference in whether someone stays out or returns back. Once he leaves Rivers, the inmate is either placed in a halfway house or directly back into society. Maybe with some type of transi-tional housing or better vocational programs inside, ex-offenders might have better choices or be better equipped to succeed from turning from criminal behavior. In my opinion, there is more to be done at Rivers, and I hope anything I said could help. If we all work together we could make things more conducive on the inside so that our fathers, brothers, and sons will be more pro-ductive on the outside. Thank you. AVIS OF LLINOIS Mr. D I. Thank you very much. We really appre-ciate the effort that you made to get here, and we certainly appre-ciate your testimony. We will go back to the questioning. I had just finished, and now I would yield to the ranking member for his round of questions. Mr. M. Thank you, Mr. Chairman. ARCHANT Thank you for your testimony Messrs. Robinson and Barnes. I think the main focus of the hearing today should be on is: what...
