Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Tocsin: Our Children in Peril It is often an unenviable task to attack. Praise smooths the plumage; criticism ruffles it. We slip through this world more easily by agreeing with our neighbor, than by combating him, but easy living is not exactly a model aim in life. I can readily foresee that numerous shafts will be directed my way for the writing of this booklet. I cannot truthfully say I am wholly indifferent to this, although I can realize that my own personal fate is a matter of small importance, compared to such things as are treated in the following pages. I only hope I shall not be represented as standing for views which I do not hold, or antagonizing anything which, in reality, is dear to me. I have actual faults enough for my enemies to feast upon, so there is no need of manufacturing any, out of whole cloth. I take pleasure in saying plainly here, that nothing written in these pages about the church, is intended to oppose her. Like many others, I regret her mistakes, but I keenly realize her immense value to the world, and am grateful for the great good she has done, and is still doing.
